Westminster *e*Forum policy conference:
Next steps for cyber security and resilience in the UK
Timing: Morning, Tuesday, 15th December 2026
Taking Place Online**

Draft agenda subject to change

8.30 Registration

9.00 Chair's opening remarks
Viscount Camrose, former Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Artificial Intelligence and Intellectual Property (2023-24)

9.05 The evolving cyber threat environment - developments, preparedness and implications for national resilience
Senior speaker confirmed from the National Cyber Security Centre

9.20 Regulator readiness and effective oversight under the expanded cyber security framework
Senior speaker confirmed from the Information Commission

9.30 Implementation of the Cyber Security and Resilience Bill - organisational readiness and compliance across regulated sectors
scope of the expanded NIS framework | implications for managed service providers, data centres, large electricity users and load controllers, critical supplier designation, and sectors where disruption can have greatest wider impact | transition arrangements, secondary legislation, codes and guidance | incident reporting including thresholds, incomplete information and avoiding duplication | accountability, assurance and alignment with the Cyber Assessment Framework, Cyber Essentials and existing standards | supply chain dependencies, proportionality according to size, exposure and systemic importance, and costs and pressures for SMEs and suppliers | regulatory coordination where responsibilities intersect | cross-border compliance, including NIS2, DORA and other international frameworks
Dr Sam De Silva, Partner and Global Co-Head, Commercial Practice Group, CMS Cameron McKenna Nabarro Olswang
Sabine Heine-Bickle, Head, Risk and Assurance, Pulsant
Jonathan Davies, Director, Network Operations and Intelligence, National Grid
Senior representative, service provider

10.00 Questions and comments from the floor

10.20 Delivery of the Government Cyber Action Plan and implications for suppliers and wider industry
Senior representative, procurement
Questions and comments from the floor

10.45 Chair's closing remarks
Viscount Camrose, former Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Artificial Intelligence and Intellectual Property (2023-24)

10.50 Break

11.00 Chair's opening remarks
David Chadwick MP, Committee Member, Cyber Security and Resilience Bill

11.05 Accountability for cyber risks - leadership, incentives and the *Cyber Resilience Pledge
Jessica Figueras, Co-Founder and CEO, Cyber Governance for Boards

11.15 AI, secure-by-design and the changing requirements for cyber resilience
David Mudd, Global Head, Digital Trust Assurance, British Standards Institution

11.25 Questions and comments from the floor

11.40 Priorities for cyber security in critical infrastructure - skills, cross-sector collaboration and support across the supply chain
Shivali Mathur, Head, NIS Delivery Unit (Cyber Regulation), Department for Energy Security and Net Zero

11.50 Strengthening cyber capability across the UK economy - adoption, investment, workforce and commercial development
Autumn Budget investment in cyber defences and AI security | priorities from the forthcoming National Cyber Action Plan | alignment of funding, skills and specialist support with regulatory requirements | reaching organisations with greatest need | wider adoption | cost, complexity and access to expertise | Cyber Resilience Pledge uptake, and commercial and reputational incentives | access to private investment | routes from innovation to commercial scale | regulatory certainty, and public procurement as a route to market | translating research into operational capability and viable products | workforce needs, recruitment, retention and entry-level routes | role of universities, research institutions and regional clusters | sustainable growth, scale-up and international competitiveness
Debi McCormack, Programmes and Partnership Director, The Cyber Scheme
Ben Lyons, Senior Director, Policy and Public Affairs, Darktrace
Professor Awais Rashid, Professor, Cyber Security, University of Bristol
Senior representative, investment

12.20 Questions and comments from the floor

12.40 The way forward for UK cyber policy - implementation, resilience and growth
Senior representative, policy
Questions and comments from the floor

13.05 Chair's and Westminster *e*Forum closing remarks
David Chadwick MP, Committee Member, Cyber Security and Resilience Bill
Thomas Howard, Westminster *e*Forum