

Westminster Legal Policy Forum Keynote Seminar: Intellectual property, innovation and the UK economy

Date: 3rd November 2010

Venue: Central London

Draft agenda subject to change

- 8.45 - 9.00 Registration
- 9.00 - 9.05 Chairman's opening remarks
Lord Boswell of Aynho
- 9.05 - 9.15 Intellectual property - an overview
Theme: How does the present IP (Intellectual Property) system operate?
Dr Matthew Fisher, Senior Lecturer and Co-director, Institute of Brand and Innovation Law, Faculty of Laws, University College London
- 9.15 - 9.45 Research, knowledge transfer and realising the social value of intellectual property
Themes: What role does IP play in incentivising and fostering innovation in the UK? How does IP promote education and learning for the benefit of wider society? How should the balance be struck between using IP to encourage innovation, for example the patenting of genetic discoveries, and the need to protect research? How can it be ensured that the rights of the consumer are protected? To what extent can collaboration across sectors be strengthened and how will this promote knowledge transfer? What challenges and opportunities for innovation are presented by the explosion in digital information?
Ben White, Head of Intellectual Property, British Library
Professor Stuart Macdonald, Professor of Information and Organisation, University of Sheffield
Dr Cathy Garner, Chief Executive Officer, Manchester: Knowledge Capital
- 9.45 - 10.10 Questions and comments from the floor
- 10.10 - 10.35 Knowledge-intensive industry - how best to incentivise and protect in-house innovation
Jennifer Carlton, Senior Programme Manager, Intellect
Questions and comments from the floor
- 10.35 - 10.40 Chairman's closing remarks
Lord Boswell of Aynho
- 10.40 - 11.10 Coffee
- 11.10 - 11.15 Chairman's opening remarks
Rt Hon Alun Michael MP, Chair, Parliamentary Information Technology Committee (PITCOM)
- 11.15 - 12.05 Intellectual property rights and the economy
Themes: How can IP contribute to the economy in the long term? Who influences the development of IP policy and are all stakeholders equally represented? What is the commercial value of IP, and how can it be utilised to add value to business? What practical steps need to be taken to establish a network of technology and innovation centres, and what will be their likely impact?
Professor Thomas Hoehn, Director, Intellectual Property Centre, Business School, Imperial College London
Peter Bance, Chief Executive Officer, Ceres Power
Matthew Dixon, Partner, Harrison Goddard Foote
Academic
Senior representative, technology and innovation centre
- 12.05 - 12.30 Questions and comments from the floor
- 12.30 - 12.55 Government strategy: the view from the Intellectual Property Office
John Alty, Chief Executive and Comptroller General, Intellectual Property Office
Questions and comments from the floor
- 12.55 - 13.00 Chairman's and Westminster Legal Policy Forum thanks and closing remarks
Rt Hon Alun Michael MP, Chair, Parliamentary Information Technology Committee (PITCOM)
Sean Cudmore, Senior Producer, Westminster Legal Policy Forum