Questions and comments from the floor
- 9.25 - 10.25 Priorities for children and young people's mental health - prevention, intervention and the transition to Adult Mental Health Services
With the Scottish Government reviewing Personal and Social Education, what practical steps can be taken to support teachers in promoting positive mental health and wellbeing? What further steps might be taken to ensure equal access to counselling and other forms of support across Scotland? What more can be done to guarantee people working with children and young people - both health and non-health professionals - are able to identify and respond appropriately to mental health illnesses? With a growing number of children and young people being seen by mental health professionals, what further action can be taken to ensure services remain person-centred? What are the key priorities for improving the transition from CAMHS to Adult Mental Health Services?
