- 9.50 - 10.10 Questions and comments from the floor
- 10.10 - 11.10 Priorities for consumers: tackling fuel poverty, managing demand and the future shape of the ECO
How well does energy efficiency policy fit into wider strategy on meeting climate change targets and affordability for consumers going forward? In the context of the closure of the Green Deal and following the publication of a review into energy efficiency schemes this month, what lessons should be taken forward? How might policy need to develop to address challenges of fuel poverty, and to better engage consumers at all income levels with domestic energy efficiency? As energy suppliers meet some of their ECO2 targets ahead of schedule, what more could they do to help deliver home energy efficiency under the new ECO programme from 2017? What can be done by government and others to increase business confidence and encourage investment?
Chris Jofeh, Director and Global Buildings Retrofit Leader, Arup
Peter Smith, Head of Policy, National Energy Action
