What can be done to ensure that the 'MAT mentors' initiative is beneficial and ensures protection for all parties involved? With an increased emphasis on encouraging applicants to leadership roles within MATs non-teaching backgrounds, how can this external experience be best utilised? What measures can be taken to ensure that MATs remain transparent and accountable? Following the announcement of 'P100' schools, the 100 secondary academies with the lowest Progress 8 scores, how can Regional Schools Commissioners best be equipped to support these academies and what role can 'system leader' MATs play? What are the benefits and risks associated with MATs diversifying in terms of geography, scale and school type? What is the future role for local authorities in relation to MATs and in the wider school system?
