Westminster Health Forum policy conference:
Next steps for AI in health and social care - regulation, adoption and service delivery
Timing: Morning, Thursday 11th February 2027
Taking place online**

Draft agenda subject to change

WESTMINSTER HEALTH FORUM

8.30 Registration

9.00 Chair's opening remarks
Senior Parliamentarian

9.05 Taking forward the AI in Healthcare Commission's recommendations - priorities for regulation and adoption
Professor Alastair Denniston, Chair, UK's National Commission into the Regulation of AI in Healthcare; and Director, UK's Centre of Excellence for Regulatory Science in AI and Digital HealthTech
Questions and comments from the floor

9.30 Next steps following the National Commission's recommendations - regulatory reform, assurance and lifecycle oversight
practical implications of Government's acceptance of all 44 recommendations | priorities for the implementation roadmap expected by spring 2027 | regulatory requirements for AI-enabled medical devices and Software as a Medical Device | approaches to assurance for AI applications outside medical device regulation | qualification, classification and staged authorisation | strengthening post-market surveillance, incident reporting and oversight of AI updates | responsibilities across developers, providers and service professionals | human oversight, professional judgement and patient redress | patient involvement, transparency and public confidence in AI-enabled healthcare | patient safety, regulatory certainty and innovation
Senior representative, health and care service management
Senior representative, medtech
Senior representative, workforce
Senior representative, patients
Senior representative, legal
Questions and comments from the floor

10.25 Developing the regulatory framework for AI-enabled healthcare technologies
Senior representative, regulation
Questions and comments from the floor

10.50 Chair's closing remarks
Senior Parliamentarian

10.55 Break

11.05 Chair's opening remarks
Senior Parliamentarian

AI adoption across health and social care - assessing its contribution and priorities for development

11.10 The contribution of AI to NHS productivity - evidence, expectations and implications for services
Senior commentator

11.20 Developing approaches to AI adoption in adult social care - sector priorities, evaluation and sector-wide considerations
Senior representative, social care

11.30 Questions and comments from the floor

11.50 Preparing the health and social care workforce for AI adoption - training, implementation and accountability
Senior representative, workforce

12.00 Moving from successful pilots to adoption at scale - evaluation, procurement and implementation across health and social care
clinical and operational evidence of benefit, including comparison with existing approaches | evaluating productivity, patient and service-user experience, outcomes and return on investment | NICE evaluation, including appraisal of selected high-impact technologies, and the National HealthTech Access Programme | real-world evidence and identifying technologies for wider adoption, adaptation or discontinuation | procurement, commissioning and the Innovator Passport | funding for adult social care and implications for smaller providers | implementation costs, organisational capacity and ongoing support | interoperability, data access and integration with existing services | implications for suppliers, investment and commercial development
Senior representative, NHS
Senior representative, adult social care provider
Senior representative, procurement
Senior representative, data
Senior representative, industry

12.25 Questions and comments from the floor

12.45 The future for AI adoption in the NHS going forward
Senior representative, health policy
Questions and comments from the floor

13.10 Chair's and Westminster Health Forum closing remarks
Senior Parliamentarian
Tess Mitchell-Thomas, Westminster Health Forum