Westminster *e*Forum policy conference:
Next steps for data protection in the UK
Timing: Morning, Thursday, 14th January 2027
Taking Place Online**

Draft agenda subject to change

8.30 Registration

9.00 Chair's opening remarks
Lord Kirkhope, Member, Communications and Digital Committee

9.05 Next steps for data protection in the UK - implementation of recent reform and considerations for further policy development
Owen Rowland, Deputy Director, Data Protection Policy, Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport
Questions and comments from the floor

9.30 Next steps for intermediary services - responsibilities, user control and trust
UK GDPR compliance and legal ambiguities in data transfers | awareness and managing friction around access and transfer | legal roles, delegation, liability and proportionate verification of delegated requests | safeguards against speculative or bulk requests | duties, governance and the interests intermediaries represent | neutrality, fiduciary duties, registration and industry-led codes | individual safety, consent and power imbalances | commercialisation and employer control of workplace data | collective and individual interests | risks from coerced delegation and concentrated data holdings | sector-level trust frameworks | Smart Data, digital identity, interoperability and consumer control | competitive data-driven markets
Jack Coulson, Head, Advocacy, Big Brother Watch
Senior representative, business
Senior representative, data intermediary
Senior representative, research
Questions and comments from the floor

10.15 International data flows - transfer mechanisms, adequacy, interoperability and security
Senior representative, international
Questions and comments from the floor

10.40 Chair's closing remarks
Lord Kirkhope, Member, Communications and Digital Committee

10.45 Break

10.55 Chair's opening remarks
Senior Parliamentarian

11.00 Data-intensive technologies - governance, compliance and the developing data protection framework
Michael Birtwistle, Associate Director, Data and AI Law and Policy, Ada Lovelace Institute
Questions and comments from the floor

11.25 Data protection and AI - legal priorities and next steps
Katie Hewson, Partner and Head of Data Protection, Stephenson Harwood

11.35 'Technology and regulation for responsible AI industry'
Michael Sturrock, Director, Policy and Public Affairs, Data and Marketing Association

11.45 AI and technological adoption - accountability, risk and implications in practice
application of data protection law to AI and data-intensive technologies | revised rules on significant solely automated decisions, human involvement and ways to challenge decisions | special-category data protections and the statutory AI and automated decision making code | compliance and legal uncertainty around AI adoption | data quality, accuracy and downstream implications | training data access and provenance | transparency and rights in complex data environments | roles, risk and responsibilities across data-intensive supply chains | governance across organisations | synthetic data and privacy-enhancing technologies | accountability, assurance and oversight for autonomous and agentic AI | effectiveness of data-protection frameworks
Ali Mustoe-Playfair, Director, Agentic Operations, ANS Group
Senior representative, innovation
Senior representative, business
Senior representative, research

12.05 Questions and comments from the floor

12.30 Next steps for data protection reform - rights, enforcement and guidance
Tom Reynolds, Director, Economic Analysis, Information Commission
Questions and comments from the floor

12.55 Chair's and Westminster *e*Forum closing remarks
Senior Parliamentarian
Thomas Howard, Westminster *e*Forum