Westminster Food & Nutrition Forum policy conference:

Next steps for the Government's Food Strategy and priorities for the UK food system Timing: Morning, Thursday, 23rd October 2025

Taking Place Online

Draft agenda subject to change

- 8.30 Registration
- 9.00 Chair's opening remarks Senior Parliamentarian
- 9.05 Assessing the landscape for food policy and priorities for the UK food system Professor Louise Dye, Co-Director, Institute for Sustainable Food, University of Sheffield

9.15 Priorities for delivering sustainable food production and maximising productivity in the agriculture sector

farm productivity and resilience | facilitating uptake of nature-friendly farming practices | strategic options for delivering environmental and economic sustainability | upgrades in biosecurity on farms | financial uncertainty linked to the Sustainable Farming Incentive | long-term viability of land management schemes for producers | food production, net zero and climate change resilience in the Land Use Framework | pressures on UK farmers from trade agreements Senior representative, agriculture Senior representative, environment Senior representative, research Senior representative, advocacy

9.35 Questions and comments from the floor

10.00 Improving domestic food security and supply chain resilience

adaptation to climate change | resilience to geopolitical shocks | labour and skills shortages | mitigating added costs and complexity in the supply chain | fairness and efficiency in supply chain operations | risks related to food fraud and system vulnerabilities | regulatory clarity to support innovation and consumer confidence | using data and automation to strengthen supply chain resilience

Senior representative, academic Senior representative, food production Senior representative, workforce Senior representative, retail Questions and comments from the floor

10.45 Chair's closing remarks

Senior Parliamentarian

- 10.50 Break
- 11.00 Chair's opening remarks Senior Parliamentarian
- 11.05 Next steps for regulation and priorities for innovation in the food system Senior speaker confirmed from the Food Standards Agency

11.20 Supporting investment, growth and innovation in the food manufacturing sector

unlocking R&D investment for healthier and sustainable product development | supporting adoption of automation, data and AI | addressing EU border challenges and regulatory divergence | tackling barriers to trade and improving market access | investment models to strengthen resilience and supply chain efficiency | sector growth alongside transition to net zero | access to talent and workforce skills | scaling-up alternative proteins | policy frameworks to support long-term innovation and competitiveness Professor Tony Heron, Head, Department of Politics and International Relations, University of York Professor Derek Stewart, Director, Advanced Plant Growth Centre; and Co-Director, National Alternative Protein Innovation Centre, The James Hutton Institute Senior representative, food industry

11.35 Questions and comments from the floor

12.00 The future for improving public health and accessibility to healthy, affordable food encouraging behaviour change and access to healthier foods | supporting at-risk groups and tackling health inequalities | affordability and nutritional equity for low-income and minoritised communities | aligning food, health and industrial strategy through the Food Strategy | data and digital tools to support obesity prevention | HFSS regulation and its future outlook | concerns around ultra-processed foods and links to health outcomes

Senior representative, advocacy
Senior representative, legal Senior representative, food industry

- Questions and comments from the floor
- 12.45 Progress and next steps for the Government's Food Strategy James LePage, Head, Food Strategy Stakeholder Engagement, Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs Questions and comments from the floor
- 13.10 Chair's and Westminster Food & Nutrition Forum closing remarks Senior Parliamentarian Jessica Lear, Westminster Food & Nutrition Forum

