

Westminster Health Forum policy conference:
Next steps for palliative care in England
Timing: Morning, Wednesday, 2nd September 2026
Taking place online

WESTMINSTER HEALTH FORUM

Draft agenda subject to change

- 8.30 Registration
- 9.00 Chair's opening remarks
Senior Parliamentarian
- 9.05 Key considerations for building a coherent national approach to palliative care
Baroness Finlay, Commissioner, Commission on Palliative and End-of-Life Care
Questions and comments from the floor
- 9.30 Developing a Modern Service Framework - commissioning consistency, long-term planning and sustainable funding
development and implementation of a Palliative Care and End-of-Life Care Modern Service Framework | alignment of future service development with the 10 Year Health Plan | achieving consistent commissioning across ICBs | developing better understanding of current and future demand for services | current funding flows across the NHS, local authorities and the voluntary sector | options for standardising funding frameworks | supporting shifts towards community-based care | implications for hospital capacity, discharge pathways and care home support | priorities for palliative care in the context of the Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill not progressing | tackling specialist workforce shortages
Dr Gillian Oakley, Senior Lecturer, Palliative Care, University of Lancashire
Dr Rakesh Korla, Clinical Lead, Ageing and Dying Well, NHS Kent and Medway Integrated Care Board
Professor Katherine Sleeman, Laing Galazka Chair in Palliative Care, King's College London; and Honorary Consultant in Palliative Medicine, King's College Hospital NHS Foundation Trust
Sharon Allen, CEO, Arthur Rank Hospice Charity
Senior representative, patients
Questions and comments from the floor
- 10.20 Assessing palliative care funding in England - insights on demand, pressures and future requirements
Lee Summerfield, Director, Responsive Audit and Investigations, National Audit Office
Lloyd Astley, Senior Analyst, National Audit Office
Questions and comments from the floor
- 10.45 Chair's closing remarks
Senior Parliamentarian
- 10.50 Break
- 11.00 Chair's opening remarks
Paul Davies MP
- 11.05 Putting patients at the centre of palliative care - addressing variation, access and experience across England
Helen Forrow, Managing Director, Marie Curie
- 11.20 Tackling inequalities and delivering personalised, technology-assisted community-based care
provision of personalised care for patients and their families in appropriate settings | support for anticipatory planning and shared decision-making | addressing variation in access, experience and support | identifying disparities affecting underserved and marginalised groups | simplifying fragmented pathways and improving co-ordination between services | developing enhanced support for families and carers, including access to bereavement services, advice and support | embedding palliative care expertise into multidisciplinary teams and neighbourhood health models | use of data, digital tools and system dashboards to support planning, predict need, target interventions and reduce crisis admissions | remote monitoring, virtual wards and virtual reality use to enhance quality of life
Senior representative, NHS
Senior representative, community care
Senior representative, primary care
Senior representative, innovation
Senior representative, mental health
- 12.10 Questions and comments from the floor
- 12.30 Policy priorities for palliative and end-of-life care going forward
Senior representative, health policy
Questions and comments from the floor
- 12.55 Chair's and Westminster Health Forum closing remarks
Paul Davies MP
Tess Mitchell-Thomas, Westminster Health Forum