

Westminster Education Forum policy conference:
Next steps for school and college buildings in England

Timing: Morning, Thursday, 1st October 2026

Taking Place Online**

Draft agenda subject to change

- 8.30 Registration
- 9.00 Chair's opening remarks
Senior Parliamentarian
- 9.05 Assessing key developments and priorities for renewal of school and college buildings
Liz Mendelsohn, Director, Arcadis
Questions and comments from the floor
- 9.30 Considerations for delivery of long-term renewal and capital investment
implementation of the Education Estates Strategy / translating national priorities into delivery / prioritising long-term renewal alongside immediate maintenance and condition needs / targeting capital investment to areas of greatest need across schools and colleges / lessons learned from the School Rebuilding Programme and wider capital programmes / meeting the commitment to remove RAAC while strengthening estate resilience / developing estate management capability and long-term asset planning / improving collaboration between trusts, colleges, local authorities and government / planning, procurement and workforce capacity for major capital programmes / delivering value for money while minimising disruption to learners
Joanne Burton, Partner, VVW
Rachel Harries, Business and Operations Manager, Denmark Road High School, Gloucester
Steve Campion, Deputy Principal, Corporate Resources, Wiltshire College & University Centre
Senior representative, local authority
Senior representative, construction
Questions and comments from the floor
- 10.20 Next steps for estate management - standards, data and digital systems
embedding School Estate Management Standards and Further Education Estate Management Standards across the sector / use of data and digital systems, including the Manage Your Education Estate platform, to strengthen estate planning and investment decisions / the transition towards common condition data standards, and priorities for improving data quality / interoperability with local planning and asset management systems / improving consistency, transparency and accountability across responsible bodies / practical implications for schools, colleges and local authorities in collecting, maintaining and using estate data
Lucy O'Brien, Legal Director, Public Law and Regulatory, Capital Law
Senior representative, local authority
Senior representative, school
Questions and comments from the floor
- 10.55 Chair's closing remarks
Senior Parliamentarian
- 11.00 Break
- 11.10 Chair's opening remarks
Senior Parliamentarian
- 11.15 Practical considerations for decarbonising schools and colleges in England
Paul Broadbent, Head, Public Sector Delivery, Great British Energy
- 11.25 Net zero considerations, climate resilience and energy efficiency across the education estate
embedding energy efficiency and decarbonisation into capital investment and estate planning / priorities for retrofit, refurbishment and modernisation / building resilience to flooding, overheating and extreme weather / balancing environmental objectives with affordability and delivery / designing school and college buildings for long-term sustainability and flexibility / progress of the power purchase agreement pilot programme / outdoor learning environments and green space within estate planning / integrating digital infrastructure and modern methods of construction / sharing effective practice in sustainable estate management
Tim Warneford, Partner, Warneford Consulting
Harry Paticas, Managing Director and Founder, Retrofit Action For Tomorrow
Wendy Litherland, Director, Sustainability, St Christopher's CE High School, Lancashire
Senior representative, college
- 11.45 Questions and comments from the floor
- 12.10 Accessibility, inclusion and meeting changing learner needs
developing estates that support inclusion, belonging, accessibility and pupil wellbeing / adapting mainstream settings to respond to rising SEND demand / designing specialist facilities and inclusion bases / alignment of capital investment with changing patterns of demand / strengthening place-based planning and community use of educational settings / ensuring estate design supports educational outcomes and long-term sustainability / practical considerations for community use, including operational requirements, security and funding
Natasha Broomhead, Education Director, Galliford Try
Kathryn Riley, Emeritus Professor of Education, UCL; and Director, The Art of Possibilities
Adrian Whiteley, Headteacher, The Mosslands School, Wallasey
Dale Richardson, Executive Director, Estates, Loughborough College Group
Questions and comments from the floor
- 12.55 Policy priorities for school and college buildings and next steps for delivery
Jane Balderstone, Director of Education Estates, Department for Education
Emma Hockley, Deputy Director: Education Estates Strategy & Policy Unit, Department for Education
Questions and comments from the floor
- 13.20 Chair's and Westminster Education Forum closing remarks
Senior Parliamentarian
Sean Cudmore, Westminster Education Forum